YALE HAS ONLY STEGOSAURUS

NOW ON VIEW,

And All Yale Has Is a Patched Up Skele ton of This 19 Foot Long Creature

That Once Lived in Wyoming-Fought

Its Enemies With Its Great Tall.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 24.-The only mounted skeleton in the world, as far as scientists know, of the Stegosaurus ungu-atus or armored dinosaur is now on exhibition at the Yale Peabody Museum. He is a cousin, so to speak, of the huge weighs 1,917 pounds, but when 3,000 years ago he wandered around Lake Como

For some thirty years his bones have been stored in the basement of Peabody

Museum for it was in 1879 that he was un-

A. Lakes, and was presented to Peabody

eum staff have been at work on the resto-

This latest addition to the museum be-

Museum by the late Prof. Othniel C. Marsh.

where between seven and ten tons.

READY THE STAGE.

Costumes Were Made Last Summer. installing new.

if Edward Siedle of the Metropolitan Opera House should think he saw a real life sized vacation looming up with his name on it he would say to himself:

Wake up! This is just a merry dream!* for yourself.

of the opera. Maybe practical would be a better word, for he has charge of the classed as mechanical.

in the spring a new but scarcely less reconstruction and new construction.

MECHANICS OF OPERA MAKING To the force of twenty-four stage car-VAST FORCE OF MEN WHO MAKE June until after Christmas do new construction work only. In the winter thirty-ever. In the summer he has a million The Metropolitan wardrobe carries thou- so big a mechanical end to its work.

of new work. is examined. Everything is repaired and this country. The summer force of con-

To the force of twenty-four stage carpenters who are employed the year round familiar properties are made, painted, night when the curtain has fallen on the gilded and otherwise tricked out during the opera the second shift of a dozen men

All the Year Round They're at it — Every of them work all summer long, except and stage lighting the opera company last house where it belongs. Then the scenery that of Scenery Overhauled and Much that individually they do get vacations. Year spent more than a quarter of a milof It Replaced Each Year 2.000 New overhauling the existing equipment and iton dollars. Scenery cost $115,000; cos- duction is got out of its particular waretumes, $108,00; properties, $22,000 and house and hauled to the Metropolitan.

Siedle runs the mechanical end paired the entire overwhelming outfit vast amount of labor involved in providgoes to the dry cleaner in the summer ing for a repertory of about fifty operas. All of this work is involved in the mere scenery might not like their job to be many operas it paints its own scenery. In this one setting there of the superintendent of the building. Mr. Fox, the principal painter, has four are more than a hundred separate objects the man who has charge of the doormen, Every day in the year except Sundays first assistants and two subordinate to be made or bought in addition to the cleaners, elevator men, office boys, usher-

Every foot of scenery, every cable, Even in the case of some of the new houses, one of them six stories high and These are strips of numbers which keep bulb; in short, every detail of the stage, be mounted by the Metropolitan staff, thing not in use in the opera actually how far off they are. For each of these ently closed and deserted building, shields, wooden lyres, fake trumpets, ordinary hours then, half holidays every numbers.

comes in, takes down the scenery, folds All this work costs money. On the four and rolls it, loads it on the company's in the wardrobe department last sum- stage lighting, $18,000, a total of $261,000. Naturally this transportation of scenery mer something like 2,000 new costumes. Of course some of the stars furnish their works more or less havor with it. Some were made. From tifty to seventy men own costumes. It depends on the con- of it can be rolled. If it can't, then it and women, four-fifths of them women, tract made. But that is only a drop out must be mounted so that it can be folded worked for months to accomplish the of the bucket of the task of getting the in sections not more than 5 feet 8 inches As matter of fact singers come and singers go, but Mr. Siedle goes on for-Trachodon (clausaurus), who also has in all kinds of weather, rain, snow, sleet, ever. In the summer he has a million sands and thousands of costumes. If The photograph of the entire new set- so that it is safe to say that an opera is quarters in the museum. At present he thousand. You can figure the difference you ask just how many the only answer ting made this summer for the maypole never produced on the Metropolitan stage you get is a groan. But after being re- scene in "Martha" gives an idea of the without some repairs to its scenery having in Wyoming he tipped the scales some-

This is only one setting out of a dozen or getting ready to produce the opera on Dry cleaning its wardrobe is one of more made by the opera staff itself the the stage. It does not include the pracconstruction and maintenance of scenery.

Dry cleaning its wardrobe is one of more made by the opera house as an entire and stage lighting the few things which the Metropolitan past summer, in addition to the over-The perfectly good artists who paint the doesn't do for itself. In the case of whelming task of rehabilitating all the auditorium. That comes in the province earthed in Wyoming by W. H. Reed and Hugh Gibb and W. S. Benton of the mu-Every day in the year except sundays if summer some of Mr. Siedle's minions have to be on the job. The very day have painted all the scenery for the comhave to be on the job. The very day have painted all the scenery for the comhave to be on the job. The very day have painted all the scenery for the comhave to be on the job. The very day in the year except sundays helpers in the work. This summer they scenery itself.

Carriage call men and so on. It actually ration for several months and, according to experts, Stegosaurus ungulatus, now after the opera season officially closes ing production of "The Girl of the Golden properties the thousands and thousands carriages for the operagoers." Two men that he is in position, is one of the finest West." They have given "Romeo and of costumes and even the outside begins flash the outside signals which show that imperative get busy order issues from Juliet" a practically new mounting.

Mr. Siedle's office. On that day is inaug"Walkure" has new scenery; "Tosca." away in the Metropolitan Opera House, in the lobbies. But it takes eight adspecimens of restoration in the country. sides being the most grotesque member urated the summer campaign of repair, "Martha" and "Trovatore" will show a lot big as it is. The answer is easy. It can't ditional men to run the carriage signals of the reptile family ever set up there has be. The company has six great store- shown in the two side lobbies themselves. the distinction of having the smallest brain in proportion to its size of any verteblock and tackle, ladder, platform, pulley, productions, such as "Armide," the 50 by 100 feet on the ground. The other moving up, showing just what carriages bolt, every electric switch, wire, button, scenery, although painted abroad, must five are perhaps half as large. Every- are approaching the entrances and just ing, weighed about 214 ounces, one-fiftieth its settings and its mechanical appliances. None of it is "built" before it reaches being presented is stored in these build- signals four men are required. One the weight of the brain of a modern elestands on the corner of Seventh avenue many things are entirely discarded and struction carpenters mounts the foreign as well as the home painted scenery. In carpenters are at work. One comes on phant of far less bodily weight. as well as the home painted scenery. In carpenters are at work. One comes on avenue and Thirty-ninth street. Each man Naturally the work of oversight and the big building, a block west of the at s in the morning and stays on until gets the number of an approaching vehicle. This consisted of a double row of upright maintenance goes on through the season Opera House, the company's employees midnight. This, by the way, seems like a and shouts it in to a man at a rele-bony plates along the neck and proximal well. But during the summer there not only paint and build the scenery but long session and is admitted to be so, phone. He'phones it to a man at another the most systematic and complete actually make many of the stage proper. But these men have an easy time in the 'phone in the lobby, and he repeats it to cleaning going on inside the ap- ties as well. Papier mache goblets and summer to make up for it. They have the man who sends up the string of visible

MOUNTED SKELETON OF THE STEGOSAURUS.

brate ever known to the Yale scientists. His brain in life, according to their recken-

The defensive armament of the dinosaur Was his most startling characteristic.

This consisted of a double row of upright bony plates along the neck and proximal part of the tail. According to the Yale scientists he probably fought his enemies with his tail and with his back to the foe. He had a long flexible tail with pointed to have a providing a wonderful mechanical device.

Both plates and spines were sheated with horn, according to the Yale scientists, the Yale scientists he probably fought his enemies for the ribs are elevated to an unusual degree, giving the lank frame greater interior capacity and at the same time providing a wonderful mechanical device. spines borne toward the end and by swingproviding a wonderful mechanical device for the support of the armor plate.

providing a wonderful mechanical device hand evidently possessing five, while the four bore three well defined digits. The for the support of the armor plate.

Stegosaurus was found exclusively in Wyoming and Colorado in the lower paleontologist at Yale, a fight between stegosaurus and his arch enemey allosaurus would have been a wonder.

Some idea of the formidableness of the day.

11 feet 101, inches, while the length of the features are the remarkable proportions of American types skeleton between perpendiculars is 19! the animal with the sharply arched verteskeleton between percendiculars is 19 feet 5 inches. The width of the hips is less than three feet and one-half, and the width of the chest is 3 feet st, inches. The greatest width is at the shoulders where the measurements are 1 feet 10 to inches. Both plates and spines were sheated with hear research to the chest is 3 feet st, and the shoulders where the measurements are 1 feet 10 to inches. Both plates and spines were sheated and gives evidence, especially in its possible to the chest is 3 feet st, and the sharpy arched vertex and the sharpy arched vertex from the sharpy arched vertex for a sum of the sharpy arched vertex from the sharpy arched vertex fro

Some idea of the formidableness of the day ever, to have been a migrant from Eur stail may be gained when it is reckoned | Prof. Lull in the December number of In Omosaurus durobrivensis from his tail may be gained when it is reckoned that its perpendicular length is 9 feet and the height of the tail tip 4 feet and 11/2 about Yale's latest addition.

I'rof. Lull in the December number of In Omesaurus durobrivensis from the American Journal of Science out the Oxfordian of England which I studied this coming week, has the following to say about Yale's latest addition.

Some of the most notable anatomical may readily be a direct ancestor of the

A NEW, SETTING FOR"MARTHA" WITH ITS HUNDREDS OF PROPERTIES.

THE SIX BEST HOLIDAY GIFTS

FIRST FOR WOMEN COME

over a case in a jeweiry store the other cay examining two gold chatelaine sets of three and of five pieces and listening intently to every word the clerk said. The set of three pieces, smelling bottle, card case and powder case, was the more expensive, and the man seemed to favor it not on account of its beauty but because of the greater capacity of the powder by the proper caper?"

One jeweller placed this chatelaine among the contrary the jewelled sort are usually the smallest.

Some lockets of comparatively plain decays, affected particularly by smart de of the fancy bags. Let me show you "

other three piece set. It ended by the size, some large. Duil gray blue is a the smallest stones even are used.

Customer carrying off the most expensive favorite color in the more expensive. Wonderfully designed ornaments for specimens trimmed variously with lace. Wonderfully designed ornaments for the huir, which came over from Europe only recently and are among the novelties only recently and are among the novelties. customer carrying off the most expen- favorite color in the more expensive man of jewelry and trinkets braces him-self to answer more questions in an hour monds price among the chatelaines. Etched, monds form the smaller leaves of a branch: LEFT HANDED RARRERS. brocaded, jewel trimmed chatelaines of three, four and five pieces may cost several hundred dellars each. One gold set intended for a Christmas gift has its intended for a Christmas gift has the christmas gift has the chri The New Fashion is to Wear Them Like future owner's monogram done in small diamonds and emeralds on each of the three pieces. Its cost is $800, and there lets of plan and embass and brace lets of plan and embass and brace lets of plan and embass and brace lets of plan and embass.

"Are there any left handed barbers? Why, certainly," said the boss, "Aren't diamonds and emeralds on each of the greatest baseball pitchers lets of plan and embass and brace left handed? "I have necessarily because Lockets Renewed Favor for Bracelets Lockets Growing Bigger Variety Shown in the Chatelaine Sets.

A big man with big-hands was leaning over a case in a jewelry store the other day examining two gold chatelaine was easily shown and some of them are larger than that and gold plated varieties less still. Perhaps this is why one jeweller placed this chatelaine among the newer manufactures.

Lockets Growing Bigger Variety Shown in the Chatelaine Sets.

A big man with big-hands was leaning over a case in a jewelry store the other day examining two gold chatelaine and of the pieces and liston.

The New Fashion Is to Wear Them Like Lockets Renewed Favor for Brace are cets which cost double this amount
On the other hand gold chatelaines which cost double this amount Under the entre are among the newer manufactures.

Lockets are immensely popular just now and some of them are larger than those of other years. The costless are immensely popular in two, and they were both excellent work—new and some of them are larger than those of other years. The costless are immensely popular in the contravity of the contravy the jewelled sort are usually the smallest.

Some lockets are immensely popular just now and some of them are larger than thus left hand, but he shaved with his left hand, but he shaved with his right, and then he cut hair with the contrary the jewelled sort are usually the smallest.

Some lockets are immensely popular just now and some of them are larger than the cost of these of other years. The costless are immensely popular in the contravity of the contravity of

"You think this is the proper caper?"

The clerk rose to the occasion. He was an experienced salesman, a man was an exper sunk into the case or describing a raised design. In one example a tiny bow with class exactly, included mostly only semi-come in that way, filling all the chairs As the customer strolled out the clerk design. In one example a tiny bow with ze and shape of the various pieces.

Made first in France and worm only the watch, in others the decoration is tached to the helt, the chatelaine was confined to a single diamond in the central colors done by combining enamels or large semi-precious or precious stones sunk into the metal.

The engineer and brakeman captured the guards, thirty-four men from each of the ships, were four the ships, were found at noon guards.

lets of plann and embossed gold and silver left handed? I have personally known work shell and of the enamel used in some different things done; and then some barriers are quicker than others, and then some some and often without making big sales of red or of green enamel are combined on the man's what to buy later for Christians presents.

"Maybe the man who just went out didn't intend to purchase to-day, but being satisfied that the thing would fill) open faced watch. By tunching a spring do that than women.

"Evidently the lady for whom the gift is invended providers her face a good deal."

"Evidently the lady for whom the gift is invended providers her face a good deal."

"The rost of these watches is higher than women.

"Evidently the lady for whom the gift is invended providers her face a good deal."

"The rost of these watches is higher than women.

"Evidently the lady for whom the gift is invended providers her face a good deal."

"The rost of these watches is higher than women.

"Evidently the lady for whom the gift is invended providers her face a good deal."

"The rost of these watches is higher than women.

"Evidently the lady for whom the gift is invended providers her face a good deal."

"The rost of these ornaments are unded in the same are used in the same and in the name and in the language of a huge curved bar pin, and they are used at the burden himself can suit his work and it leaves the suit has a semple so from a line pewel led chain.

"Evidently the lady for whom the gift is invended providers her face a good deal."

"The rost of these watches is higher than work and the floating than the naverage pocketheols approves on the man's mind Relieved on that the naverage pocketheols approves and the man's mind the chains of the derive than the naverage pocketheols approves and the provided providers have the suits and the chain and the officers of the respective services of powders was the point most impressed to have the latter is one of the newest favorite mesh hags not the same and the chain and the chain stantists and then the chains, the same are adjustable for that m designs. The m

Unless a chatelaine set is worn merely as an ornament it is just as well, the suspended from a chain are even more clerk thought, to pay attention to the patterns the raised ornamentation covers.

Made first in France and worn only the watch in others the moderate in some of the latter is entirely of metal some of the latter is entirely of metal some of the newest favorite mesh bags are very small; this in fact is one of the mounting instead of the mounting instead of being plain gold or silver to match the majorer and the mounting over it. The train was stopped.

The gold watches designed to be worn the most fashionable shapes, longer rather the mounting instead of being plain gold or silver to match the bag includes several colors done by come.

Why, certainly," said the boss, "Aren't a locket.

You think this is the proper caper?*

When worn in this fashion the watch and with colored enamels.

When worn in this fashion the watch and with colored enamels.

The costller models can hardly be told could tell us why he does this. I don't the costller models can hardly be combining.

In every case, in fact, to be correct when bracelets are again made much of the reason that it would make him get the chain must match the watch and be owing to the scant favor shown to long in the way of the barber on the next chair.

He got some fancy bags and diustrated his point to the customer's satisfaction.

"But I am going to show you another chatelaine which has a still larger powder case," the clerk went on.

The third set, also of gold, included a vanity box which had a compartment for cards, a tiny mesh purse and a vinagrette, and it cost $5 more than the ordinary locket chain. In other words the watch rests at about the middle of the corsage instead of near the throat as a locket is usually worn.

The third set, also of gold, included a vanity box which had a compartment for cards, a tiny mesh purse and a vinagrette, and it cost $5 more than the ordinary locket chain must match the watch and be a little longer than the ordinary locket chain. In other words the watch rests as about the middle of the corsage instead of near the throat as a locket is usually worn.

The third set, also of gold, included a compartment for cards, a tiny mesh purse and a vinagrette, and it cost $5 more than the ordinary locket chain must match the watch and be alittle longer than the ordinary locket chain the ordinary locket chain the ordinary locket chain the ordinary locket as leveler, "the bracelet is one of the best selling holiday gifts, and the narrow gold varieties come first."

Few of the best, most stylish, bracelets show any raised work. When jewels and the narrow gold they are sunk into the best, said a jeweller, "the bracelet is one of the best selling holiday gifts, and the narrow gold varieties come first."

Few of the best, sult bracelet is one of the best selling holiday gifts, and the narrow gold the particles come first. "Few of the best, sulting holiday gifts, and the narrow gold varieties come first."

Few of the best, sulting holiday gifts, and the narrow gold the chain must match the watch rests and the narrow gold varieties come first."

Few of the best selling holiday gifts, and the narrow gold varieties come first. "If all the chairs in a shap were occupied to decorate gold they are sunk show any raised work. When jewels and the

As the customer strolled out the clerk design. In one example a tiny bow with class exactly, include mostly only semi-come in that way, hand, at the same moment and all for the same precious stones. When jewels are used at the same moment and all for the same entirely of diamonds, and in another example the gold was outlined with diamonds.

As the customer strolled out the clerk design. In one example a tiny bow with class exactly, include mostly only semi-come in that way, hand, at the same moment and all for the same of their daintiness, the fineness of the open different (hings done) and then some designs.

at one time intended more for decoration than use. There are chatelaines like that in the stores now and they share the vogue of the larger sets which are attached to a chain worn over the wrist.

There is great diversity of style-and, the control of the depoint of the stores are control of the stores are chatelaines like that in the stores now and they share the vogue of the larger sets which are attached to a chain worn over the wrist.

There is great diversity of style-and, the centre of our very small allows diamonds the centre of the case.

Attended 3.697 Funerals.

There is great diversity of style-and, the centre of the case.

There is great diversity of style-and, the centre of the case.

There is great diversity of style-and, the centre of the case.

There is great diversity of style-and, the centre of the case.

There is great diversity of style-and, the centre of the case.

There is great diversity of style-and, the centre of the case.

There is great diversity of style-and, the centre of the case.

There is great diversity of style-and, the centre of the case.

There is great diversity of style-and, the centre of the case.

There is great diversity of style-and, the centre of the case.

There is great diversity of style-and, the centre of the case.

There is great diversity of style-and, the centre of the case.

There is great diversity of style-and, the centre of the case.

There is great diversity of style-and, the centre of the case.

There is great diversity of style-and, the centre of the case.

There is great diversity of style-and, the centre of the case.

There is great diversity of style-and, the case of the case.

The control of the decot. The case of the sale of the case of the style-and the case of the case.

The control of the decot of the demonds of the case of the case of the case of the case of the style-and the case of the case o

MODEL OF STEGOSAURUS UNGULATUS.

Ceremonies Attending the Hauling Down of the Union Jack From the Pole Where It Had Been Flying Since 1854 and the water and H. M. C. S. Rainbow drawn up on either side of the flagpole on Duntze Head, from which the Union Jack of the Admiralty so long has been flying. The The engineer and brakeman captured the guards, thirty-four men from each of and at noon gunfire a bluejacket of H M. S. Shearwater hauled down the Admiraity's flag, while the guards presented arms, the bugles sounded and the officers ceremoniously saluted. Then a bluejacket of the Rainbow hauled up another Union Jack, this one the flag of the Dominion, while the guards again presented arms, the bugles once more blared and the officers resaluted. The naval yard had been in use by the

THE NEW AND THE OLD AT ESQUIMALT. THE BRITISH CRUISER SHEARWATER (DRESSED WITH BUNTING) AND THE CANADIAN CRUISER RAINBOW AT THE TAKING OVER OF THE NAVAL YARD FROM GREAT BRITAIN BY CANADA.

RATS DESTROY CORN.

Farmers Say They Attack the Growing Grain in the Milk Stage. From the Kansas City Star.

The corn crop suffers greater injury from rats than any other crop grown in the middle West Resides depredations on newly sown seed the animals attack he growing corn when in the milk state They climb the upright stalks and often strip the cob clean of grain,

A farmer living near Grand River, lows, relates the following experience.

We had about two thousand bushels of corn in three cribs to which rats ran and they are and destroyed one-fourth of it.

Much of it was too was belowed. Much of it was too unwholesome to put through the grinder until it had been cleaned an car at a time. All the time we poisoning and trapping them. We i as high as 200 rats in two days and could hardly miss them. They destroyed more than enough corn to pay taxes on 400 acres of land."

of land."

One man reports an instance in which rats destroyed three-fourths of the rop on thirteen acres. A large portion of the crop grown on the Potomac Flats ness?

Washington was destroyed by rats.